

Christ Servant Ministries - Preaching 3

SO WHAT?

Moving Your Preaching from Informing to Transforming

Charley Reeb writes that "if autopsies were performed on many dead churches the cause of death would be clear: pulpit failure. Nothing kills a church faster than poor preaching." Too many preachers spend too much time informing listeners about the scriptural text, and not enough time leading listeners to a transforming experience with God through the text. This workshop will help preachers begin to address that issue.
